

Working With Adolescents—Understanding Behaviors and Issues.....

Connie Schnoes PhD is the supervising practitioner for Behavioral Health at the Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic.. She will address current challenges in working with adolescents including self-harm and suicidal ideation, other mental health challenges and current treatment modalities. The 4 hour session will be offered in two Panhandle locations....

Thursday, October 20th, 2016 at 1:00 p.m. in Chadron at the High School auditorium....

And....

Friday, October 21st at 9:00 a.m. at Prairie Winds Community Center in Bridgeport.

This seminar is sponsored by CAPstone Child Advocacy Center, Scotts Bluff County CASA and Regional I Behavioral Health Services.

Please secure a seat by e-mailing Shelley Thomas at interviewer@capstone-nebraska.com indicating which session you will be attending or you may register at the CAPstone website, www.capstonenebraska.com.

